Product description:

An ultra-slim table in a minimalist look with slightly recessed straight legs, which create a little shadow, and additional modules can be added in a row to create a strong, graphic appearance.

Another elegant feature is the fine line between the tabletop and the legs and frame. This detail creates a second, even more delicate shadow edge, giving the impression that the table is floating, despite its strong and durable construction.

The Element table is designed to meet the demands of both domestic and commercial settings. Built to last, this robust piece is engineered to withstand everyday use and most impacts.

Designer's thoughts:

"I wanted to design a table with a Brutalist expression as well as Brutalist strength. Added details in between all the joints serve to visually separate the table's elements, hence the name." - Jonas Herman, Herman Studio
